St. Louis Globe-Damocrat, Wednesday: There was but little done on 'change yesterday. The chief topic of conversation on change yesterday among steamboatmen was the weather and the status of the pool line. All agreed that the weather was demnition hot, and that the pool line was in such a condition that 'no feller could find out exactiv how it was himself, or any other man,' but as soon as the M. V. T. company's steamer eaves it is expected that freights will be at a ving rate for steamboats. Louisville Courier-Journal, Wednesday:
"The John L. Rhodes, sunk on the falls Sunday, has been raised. She came up through the canal yesterday and proceeded to Madison, to go on the ways there. She put off a big lot of nails on the bank of the falls near where she stuck, and the balk of her cargo off on Reamer's wharfboat at New Albany.

The Mary Houston arrived from Cincinnati yesterday, and is to be dismantled. A new boat, about the style and size of the A.C. Donnally, will be built for her machinery, and when finished will be a fine steamer." The following letter of the commissioner of internal revenue will give information of interest to many parties: TREASURY DEPARTMENT.

OFFICE OF INTERNAL REVENUE WASHINGTON, D. C., June 14, 1877. SIR-In reply to your letter of the ninth instant, you are advised that if special tax stamps have been issued for the sale of liquors and cigars on a boat carrying a picni party, such stamps may be removed to cover sales on the picnic grounds, if the facts have been registered with the collector. (Int. Rev. Rec., vol. 18, pp. 81 and 82.) But during the picnic the sales on the boat must be discontinued. If sales be made in both places at the same time, special tax would be incurred for both. Respectfully, GREEN B. RAUM, Commissioner.
